Attention Local Artists!

Invitation to our local artists to participate in First Saturday Art Walks: new this year-open-air easel displays to be held at locations in downtown Stroudsburg, PA. The first Saturday event will be August 1st and continue each First Saturday of the month (barring bad weather) through November 1st 2020.

This pandemic has hampered us all in unforeseen and unimaginable ways – especially within the arts. First Saturday Art Walks offer the Stroudsburg creative and artistic community an opportunity showcase their work for 2 hours (6 – 8 pm) in public spaces – all advertised on social media, and other news outlets. (All monies exchanged are between the buyer and seller). There are no set up fees-this event is designed to help artists. You may be required to set up / take down signs provided to you and return them to Gamut after 8pm.

For those interested in setting up, please contact Mary Evanisko at – mcevanisko@gmail.com

Limited space is available on a rotating basis on Monroe Street between 6th and 7th Streets. You may also request to set up in front of a business allowing a 5-foot walkway on the sidewalk. Approval from the business owner is required. (Sidewalk Sales take precedent in front of any business that chooses to set up sales).

This is a first come, first serve invitation and spaces are limited – please contact us TODAY if interested.

Setup at 5:30 pm/teardown at 8 pm, each First Saturday. Artists are responsible for their own artwork, sale, setup and safety. All artists displaying work are required to wear facemasks, have their own hand sanitizers and any other safety equipment necessary for them to protect themselves and others.
