The Earth Speaks III – A Juried Exhibition on the Environmental Crisis

The Pocono Arts Council, along with several local partners, will once again host a juried exhibition on the environmental crises - "The Earth Speaks III" next April in the ARTSPACE Gallery. This show grew out of past PoconoArts board president Mark Lichty's deepening concern for the climate crisis currently affecting our planet. As we did last year, the theme has been expanded to include the environmental crisis, using Art as a vehicle for raising consciousness of these important issues. The show is open to all, with awards available in a variety of mediums including 2-D, 3D, Photography and Printmaking. A special $250 Kay and Girard Lichty Climate Crisis Award has been added this year. Students are welcomed and encouraged to enter.

The juror for this year's exhibition is Karen Rich Beall. Ms. Beall was born and raised in West Palm Beach, Florida. After earning a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Ceramics from the University of Florida in 1986, she moved to New York City and worked as a studio assistant, wood restorer, and Circulation Director for Artforum Magazine while pursuing her own art work. In 1992 Beall left New York to attend graduate school at the University of Tennessee, where she received her Master of Fine Arts degree in Sculpture in 1995. Beall is currently teaching Ceramics and Sculpture as an adjunct instructor of art at Lebanon Valley College. For further information on Ms. Beall, visit www.karenrichbeall.com.

This year's exhibition is open to regional artists living in ME, NH, VT, MA, CT, RI, NY, NJ, PA, VA, MD, DE, DC.
