Easton, PA. He currently serves as Board Chair for the Arts Community of Easton and has served Riverside Festival of the Arts committees and as a visiting artist at Lafayette College. His work can be found at Brick and Mortar Art Gallery and Connexions Gallery in Easton and many other public and private collections.

Cash prizes will be awarded for Best of Show, Senior Awards (three per category) and Junior Awards through Grade 8 (three per category).

The public is encouraged to support these aspiring young artists by attending the reception and visiting the ARTSPACE Gallery during the show's run to view the fine artwork created by talented student artists in the Monroe County region.

The Pocono Arts Council thanks NEPA Credit Union and the Pocono Chapter, PA Guild of Craftsmen for sponsoring the Student Exhibition 2018 and seeks additional sponsors to support the many participating students, as well as underwrite prizes for the winners. Studies continue to prove that the arts are an important component of every child's education; teaching many skills and values that cannot be found in academics alone. Students who study the arts are well rounded, successful and better equipped to enter the work force of tomorrow.

New Director for PCA

The Pennsylvania Council on the Arts (PCA) announced Karl Blischke as its new executive director. Blischke joins the PCA by way of Florida, where he served in several senior level positions within the state's Department of Economic Opportunity and Governor's Office of Tourism, Trade and Economic Development.

Blischke succeeds Philip Horn, who is retiring from state government after leading the PCA for 25 years, under five governors and through four strategic plans. Horn is the longest serving executive director in the PCA's nearly 52-year history, and one of the longest serving state arts agency leaders in the country.

From Blischke: "It is a pleasure to return to Pennsylvania where my previous work with the PCA's many programs and initiatives taught me the business of state arts agencies," said Blischke. "My family and I look forward to being Pennsylvanians, me for the second time and my family for the first. Pennsylvania is a great state for the arts, with unbeatable opportunities for meaningful employment in creative industries and for everyone to experience arts and culture in every region. Having been away for nine years, I have come to appreciate even more the richness and diversity of the arts in the Keystone State."
