

OCTOBER 2018

From the Director:

Changes in the New Fiscal Year

The Pocono Arts Council begins its new fiscal year on October 1, 2018. After careful review of the current budget, in order to maintain the current level of programming, there are two options: cut expenses and generate more income.

Following a two-month strategic planning process, the Board of Directors has voted to institute a few changes in the new fiscal year. Beginning October 1, 2018, the ARTSPACE Gallery will be closed on Mondays. Art intake days will shift to Tuesdays from 1-6pm. We are also launching the Annual Fund Campaign 2018 with the goal of generating $25,000 in operating funds by year-end. We encourage everyone, individuals and businesses, to participate. No donation is too small. Please consider making a contribution, at a level comfortable to you, so we can continue to support the arts in our community.

If you are a business owner that appreciates what arts and culture brings to our community, we welcome you as a sponsor. Specifically, the November exhibition in the ARTSPACE Gallery is entitled, "Art in the Age of Digital Technology." We hope this topic will inspire the participation of a whole new group of artists and students in a non-traditional medium. To encourage participation, the submission fee will be waived for high school and college students. To offset costs, we are seeking two to three corporate sponsors willing to donate $250 each. You may signup online to Sponsor an Exhibition: <http://poconoarts.org/support/become-a-sponsor/>

Thank you for your support of the Arts!

Public Vote: November 13-16, 2018

All ArtPop winners will be announced on December 13, 2018

Reception: Thursday, December 13, 5:30-8 pm

Stroudsmoor Country Inn, 257 Stroudsmoor Road, Stroudsburg PA 18360

Jurors for the 2019 ArtPop competition are:

Nichole Smith, Graphic Designer, Adams Outdoor Advertising

Wendy Hickey, Executive Director, ArtPop Street Gallery

Stacie Brennan, Senior Director of Visual Arts, ArtsQuest

Susan Randall, Executive Director of Pocono Arts Council

Erin Anderson, ArtPop Lehigh Valley class of 2017

Judith Moeller, ArtPop, Pocono class of 2017

Theo Anderson, ArtPop, Lehigh Valley class of 2015

Jason Williamson ArtPop, Pocono class of 2017

As ArtPop prepares to kick off its fifth year, the billboard competition's two Pennsylvania programs are joining together to strengthen and expand the popular public art initiative, opening the competition to an 11-county region and adding in a $500 cash scholarship for the winner of the ArtPop high school competition. In addition, Kutztown University is offering a $2,500 scholarship if the winning high school student enrolls in a Kutztown University degree program. Entries for the annual artist competition, which features works shown on Adams Outdoor Advertising billboards throughout the region, will be accepted Sept. 21-Nov. 9.

Launched in 2014, ArtPop is a public art initiative that showcases the work of area artists on Adams billboards for an entire year. For the past several years, Adams has partnered with the ArtPop Street Gallery, Pocono Arts Council and ArtsQuest's Banana Factory Arts Center to offer two different ArtPop competitions – one in the Poconos and another in the Lehigh Valley. Starting this year, all of the partners will join together for "ArtPop Eastern Pennsylvania," open to artists from suburban Philadelphia to the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton region.

With ArtPop, artists are invited to submit works of art to be considered for one of 12 Adams billboards throughout the region. Eleven artists, including the high school competition winner, are selected by the official ArtPop jurying committee, while the final winner is chosen via a public vote. The 2019 ArtPop competition is open to artists residing in Berks, Bucks, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Luzerne, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Pike and Wayne counties in Pennsylvania, as well as Warren County in New Jersey.

All ArtPop winners, with the exception of the People's Choice Winner, will be selected by the ArtPop jurying panel in early November. From Nov. 13-16, the public can vote online at www.bananafactory.org/artpop for its favorite work for the People's Choice Winner. All winners will then be announced Dec. 13, 5:30 p.m., at the Stroudsmoor Country Inn in Stroudsburg.

Artists who wish to enter the ArtPop competition should visit bananafactory.org/artpop to upload the artwork, keeping in mind the very strict adherence to the required billboard size. Two-dimensional art and photographs of three-dimensional art that fit these measurements are acceptable. Previous ArtPop winners must wait three years before submitting works for the ArtPop competition. 2015 winners are eligible to apply.

Mac and Cheese Bake-off

Sunday, November 4, 2-5pm
Renegade Winery

The 6th Annual Mac & Cheese Bake-off is just around the corner! One of the Pocono Arts Council's biggest fundraisers of the year, this crowd pleaser will be held once again at the Renegade Winery, 600 Main Street, Stroudsburg, on Sunday November 4 from 2-5pm. Last year's event was a big success with 20 contestants and more than 150 attendees taking part. Admission is $5 per person.

Professional restaurant chefs and amateurs are invited to showcase their favorite macaroni and cheese recipe to be judged by a panel of judges and the public who attends the event. The winning restaurant can claim itself, "Best Mac and Cheese in the Poconos!" The grand prize-winning restaurant will receive one free month of digital billboard advertising from Lamar Advertising ($1,500 value) and the second place restaurant will receive a radio ad package from Pocono 96.7, Neversink Media Group ($500 value). The amateur first place winner will receive a $100 cash prize, and second- and third-place winners will receive gift certificates.

There is a $50 entry fee to participate. Contestants donate two aluminum trays of Mac & Cheese, including set-ups for warming and serving. Promotional materials may be distributed at the event. Sign-up online by Friday, October 26 at www.poconoarts.org/bakeoff.

The Pocono Arts Council is also seeking sponsors at a $250 sponsorship level. Small businesses are encouraged to participate: <http://poconoarts.org/support/become-a-sponsor/>

If you have any questions, contact Pocono Arts Council board member and event chair, Judy Moeller at jpmoeller1022@gmail.com.

All in the Family

Darice Joy (Pappalardo)

Pauselius

Partner, FullCup.Co

As the only child of two artists (Paul & LisaJo Pappalardo) I was fortunate to have been exposed to the arts scene from a young age. I grew up with Monroe County Arts Council and the co-op gallery ARTSPACE 534. Some of my earliest memories are of gallery openings, strolling musicians, COTA Jazz Festival, and visiting studio spaces of the area's many talented artists. A favorite stop was McMahon Art & Design. I would sit at Barb's drafting board and drool over the technical pens, pencils, tapes, and rulers. I still remember the smell of the staircase leading up to her studio.

Fast forward to the early 90s, and my parents managed Starling Art, an art supply store, frame shop, and studio space on 6th Street in Stroudsburg where Turrell Art Studios - Custom Framing & Art Services is now located. During that same time, my father had a studio above artists Jonathan Hertz and Linda Guenste's home/studio in Pen Argyl.

After my father's passing in 1994, I was fortunate to study at A Family of Artists and learn from amazing visual and performing artists who are still shaking up the arts scene today: Jamie Downs, John McLaughlin, Patricia Griffin, Eleanor Clarkson, Charlie Tweedie, Peter Taney, Janet Bregman-Taney, Joy Taney, Maxwell Donkor, Janet Lawson, Steve Linden, and countless others. To say that my childhood was formed by the artists and musicians of the Poconos is an understatement.

Before meeting Matt, my partner in business and life, I worked at both Designer Crafts and DRs Custom Framing on Main Street in Stroudsburg. It was there that I met even more local and national artists and craftspeople, and my desire to promote the fine art and handcraft movement solidified. Thanks for your love and tutelage Dottie, Hilton, Vicki, and Kim!

My real involvement with the Pocono Arts Council started a few years ago with the redesign of the website. My family and I had just returned to the Shawnee area in 2014 after a number of years in other Pennsylvania towns. Joining and volunteering at the Arts Council was a priority for us.

Matt and I own FullCup.Co: a full-service branding and design studio with a focus on small businesses and non-profits. We create logos, print collateral, websites - the works. Putting our experience to work was the best way for us to support the Pocono Arts Council since it can be done from our home studio. Getting out to events and physically participating is tricky with two curious kiddos in tow!

We continue to volunteer our time to the Arts Council's website: performing regular updates, adding forms and pages, monitoring security scans, and helping to create a more streamlined experience for on-boarding donors and members. Websites are, by nature, works-in-progress... so it's a position that will always exist in some form.

Apart from the Arts Council, I volunteered at Camp Brainerd in Snydersville for a number of years. Familial ties to the property and the camp itself made my time and effort even more rewarding. I updated their print collateral, helped with marketing campaigns, and redesigned their website. Eventually, they merged with Camp Kirkwood and my role was absorbed by other volunteers.

Currently, we offer our talents to the Monroe County Democratic Committee, helping produce their Resource Guide & Calendar. Most importantly, I volunteer as Treasurer of the PTO at our daughter's school. Working alongside our kiddo with her teachers and other parents for the benefit of her school community is just about the best volunteer position I could imagine.

I'd love to see the Arts Council's presence grow throughout the region. Events and exhibitions at venues beyond the Stroudsburg area is one way that might be accomplished. A few members have done just that, which is exciting! I think it's important that the stories and points of view of Pocono Arts Council members are experienced by new audiences.

We've truly enjoyed being members of the Arts Council. I think our biggest reward has been the sense of belonging. Even though we're local, staying connected and putting down roots takes work. Knowing our efforts are benefiting the community - our community - is a great feeling.

It might surprise folks to learn that I used to be a clown (bump a nose!) and puppeteer. Third generation, actually. My maternal grandparents were both clowns, as was my mother. Meeting and falling in love with my father interrupted her plans to go to Barnum & Bailey Clown College. No joke! Maybe that's why our life resembles a circus at times...

East Stroudsburg University

ESU Fine & Performing Arts Center, 570-422-3493, www.esu.edu/theatretickets, esuarts@esu.edu

"The Library" by Scott Z. Burns, produced by Stage II student theatre organization, October 4-6, 7:30PM; October 7, 2PM, Dale Snow Theatre. This topical drama examines the aftermath of a deadly shooting spree at a fictional high school. Recommended for mature high school students and adults.

Pocono Mountains Theater Company

Pocono Cast at Various Locations: October 3, Sarah Street Grill, 550 Quaker Alley, Stroudsburg, 7PM; October 17, Pocono Cinema and Cultural Center, 88 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, 7PM; October 26-27, The Shawnee Playhouse, 552 River Road, Shawnee on Delaware, 7PM. www.poconomountainstheatercompany.org
"A Number" explores the fragility of personal identity and nature versus nurture. A son confronts his emotionally distant father, learning a horrifying truth about his past. This is a profound work whose characters grapple with guilt, vanity, menace and quiet resentment.

Shawnee Playhouse

552 River Road, Shawnee on Delaware, 570-421-5093, www.theshawneeplayhouse.com
"The Sunshine Boys," October 6, 13 & 20 at 8PM; October 5, 7, 12, 14, 19, & 21 at 2PM
Playwright Neil Simon brings us Al and Willie as "Lewis and Clark," who were top-billed vaudevillians for over 40 years. Now they aren't even speaking. When CBS requests them for a "history of comedy" retrospective, a grudging reunion brings the two back together, along with a flood of memories, miseries, and laughs.

Theater Studio: A Confidence Theater

Located at the School of Visual and Performing Arts, 554 Main St., Stroudsburg, 5PM. 570-817-3453, www.theaterstudiobg.webs.com

"And Then There Was One – A Spoof" by Michael Druce, Free, October 27, 5PM, Spoof of the famous stage mystery is all comedy, filled with hilarious sight gags and dialogue. Ten people are brought together by mysterious invitation to the Reef Mansion on a tiny, isolated island. Not one of them knows the host, who is nowhere to be found. Still, he has left an ominous recording that bodes evil for the guests.

Sundays 1-4pm

October 7, 14, 21, 28

November 4, 11, 18 (no class on 11/25)

December 2, 9, 16, 23

Come join us in this ongoing watercolor journey and discover the flexibility of this wonderful medium. We will cover composition, form, shapes and definitely color!!! Students can work from photos that they have taken or utilize the still life that will be set up during each workshop. A very free approach will be explored where your creativity takes wing. JOIN THE JOURNEY!

Instructor: Iraina Caramelli graduated from the Parsons School of Design in NYC. She also studied fine and graphic arts at Pratt Institute. She works in a variety of mediums including mixed media, acrylics, watercolor, pen and ink and pastels. Iraina is listed in the Who's Who of American Women.

Tuition: Member $100/Non-Member $110; Senior Member $90/Non-Member $100

Drawing Workshop for Children (Ongoing)

Saturdays 1-3pm

October 6 (Halloween workshop on 10/13; no class 10/20 & 10/27)

November 3, 10, 17 (no class 11/24)

December 1, 8, 15, 22, 29

In this ongoing workshop students will explore easy drawing techniques to help them draw realistically and then move on to their own personal drawing interpretations of images. Explore color usage by learning about the color wheel and all of the variety of combinations that are available to them. Acrylics, watercolor, tempera paint and colored pencils are some of the supplies that will be used to express color choices. BRING YOUR OWN MATERIALS and join us to expand how you see the world.

Instructor: Suzanne Werfelman is a retired art teacher/artist who taught students in NYC, NJ and the Poconos for over 35 years. Suzanne graduated from Indiana University in Bloomington with a degree in Art Education.

Tuition: $10.00 per workshop
