

From the Director

I hope you are making plans to attend our Annual Members Meeting and Pennsylvania Partners in the Arts Grant

Awards Ceremony on Thursday, December 6 at the Pocono Cinema in East Stroudsburg. As the Pocono Arts Council rounds out its first year under new leadership, we are looking forward to celebrating our accomplishments with our members and friends. The event will start at 5:30 sharp. Pocono Cinema, along with our many other community partners, are essential ingredients in fostering a lively, active arts community, and this is something I have noticed as an overriding theme during the last several months of my tenure as the new director at PoconoArts. We all help each other, and I have appreciated the collegial nature and cooperation of like-minded organizations throughout our region. One final note, please respond generously to our annual end-of-year campaign. The arts council does wonderful things in our five-county service area, and in order to continue, we need your help more than ever. I am looking forward to 2019 with a sense of optimism. I'd like to thank our Board of Directors and staff for their support and vision. Thanks also to our dedicated group of volunteers, with special recognition to Alyssa Koeck who recently received an M.S. in Nonprofit Leadership from the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Policy & Practice in Philadelphia. She reached out to offer her assistance to the Pocono Arts Council, and we appreciate her help in developing this year's end-of-year campaign.

Wishing everyone the happiest of holiday seasons, and we'll see you around the gallery. Thank you for your support of the Arts!

Welcome Michele Buzzelli

Membership & Data Management

membership@poconoarts.org

Happy December Arts Council members! My name is Michele Buzzelli, and I'm the new Membership & Data Manager. This brand-new position was created with the sole purpose of keeping the needs of you, our members, in mind. I am focused on designing/updating our membership registry, streamlining contact through our renewal process, and being a reliable point of contact for our membership community.

While I officially joined the team at the start of our fiscal year on October 1st, many of you may recognize me from running around the Arts Council offices and behind the scenes at special events since early 2018.

Growing up in Stroudsburg in an arts-centric family, I knew very early the value that the Pocono Arts Council provided the community. One of my first art classes was with Marilyn Cooper in the late 1990s. That class made so much of an impact on my family that charcoal sketches she did of me during those few weeks hung in my grandparents' living room until they passed.

I can happily say that I've never lived in a world where the arts are insignificant. I also teach in the Public Health and College Success departments at Northampton Community College, and I work with my students on a regular basis to recognize the artistic beauty that surrounds us on a daily basis. Whether we see it or not, there is beauty in problem solving – in human interaction.

In addition to working with the Arts Council and teaching with Northampton, I'm also a certified yoga instructor and teach stress-reduction yoga for Fitzmaurice Community Services employees and bartend at RAW winery on weekends. I'm also a complete bookworm, so in my free time I'm usually curled up with a book and my 9-year-old rescue dog, Mocha.

Feel free to contact me at membership@poconoarts.org.
