From the Director

A full slate of activities and events are on tap for 2019 with the addition of a few new opportunities to round out the year. We have added an "Open Studio Tour" to be held the weekend of April 27-28. Artists, many with works that are too large to transport to shows and exhibitions, will be participating by opening their studios to give the community a first-hand glimpse of their creative spaces. Our exhibition schedule at ARTSPACE Gallery is complete and will begin in February with the student show, featuring works from Monroe County students, grades K-12. I hope you take advantage of the many wonderful concerts, plays, events, and exhibitions that are made possible by the PA Partners in the Arts grants; it was a pleasure to see the smiling faces at our grant award ceremony in December. I want to thank our board of directors, members, staff, and friends for helping me acclimate over the past year. Change is never easy, and there are many that have helped smooth out the rough edges. At the end of the day, we are here to promote and appreciate the arts which enrich our lives in so many ways, and so, I'm ready to begin our 44th year of serving the community with renewed energy and anticipation.

ArtPop 2019 Billboard Competition Winners Announced

12 area artists, including one high school winner, to have their work featured on Adams Outdoor Advertising billboards in 2019

Exciting mediums like hand-cut stained glass, fiber art and botanical pressed flowers highlight the 12 winning works in the 5th annual ArtPop Billboard Competition presented by ArtPop Street Gallery, Adams Outdoor Advertising, Pocono Arts Council, ArtsQuest, and Kutztown University. The winning artists, selected via a juried competition, will have their work displayed on Adams Outdoor Advertising billboards on major thoroughfares in the region from the week of Jan. 7 through the end of Dec. 2019.

This year's ArtPop competition expanded to an 11-county region, open to artists residing in Berks, Bucks, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Luzerne, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Pike, and Wayne counties in Pennsylvania, as well as Warren County in New Jersey. More than 170 entries were received for the competition.

Among the 12 winners is Hannah Hess of Nazareth Area High School who impressed the judges with her dynamic acrylic work on Masonite depicting a girl "Submerged" in water. Hess will not only have her work on a billboard for all of 2019, she will also be awarded a cash prize of $500 and a $2,500 scholarship to a Kutztown University art program by the Kutztown University Foundation.

ArtPop 2019

"Billboards are a great way to be seen and heard, so Adams is proud to use that visibility to bring attention to the talented artists across the Eastern Pennsylvania region," says Adams Outdoor Advertising General Sales Manager Jeffrey Chandler. We owe so much to the local art community for providing us with inspiration, culture, and for producing the skilled designers and illustrators that make up our creative teams in all of our markets across the nation."

In addition to the scholastic winner, the official jurying panel selected 10 artists ages 18 or older to be featured on area billboards next year. The twelfth winner, Joe Edelman of Allentown, was chosen as the "People's Choice Winner" through a public vote that ended Nov. 17. More than 4,600 people voted in the competition this year.

"The original idea for an artist billboard competition came to me when I was working in the Poconos in the early 2000s," says ArtPop Street Gallery Founder and Executive Director Wendy Hickey. "We returned officially as ArtPop in 2015 to the Lehigh Valley and in 2016 in the Poconos, so the merging of these two markets in 2019 provides an incredible opportunity for the region's artists to have a voice in a much larger, 11-county area.

"I'm also proud to note that we now have husband-and-wife ArtPop Street Gallery artists from #ArtPopEasternPA. We've had more than 290 artists featured on billboards from North Carolina to Las Vegas and this is a first. Our 2015 ArtPop Street Gallery artist Michael Hess is married to 2019 ArtPop Street Gallery artist Dana Hess. Congratulations to them and to all of the 2019 ArtPop Eastern Pennsylvania winners."

At the event Sue Randall, executive director of the Pocono Arts Council, paid special thanks to Stroudsmoor Country Inn for providing the reception venue. "Linda Forte is a wonderful community partner and has been involved since Wendy initiated the program. We are pleased to invite our Lehigh Valley guests to enjoy the Poconos. Many artists ask, 'How do I get on that billboard?' With 170 submissions this year, I am honored to be a judge and happy that ArtPop Alumni were involved in this year's judging. Congratulations to all the winners."

ArtPop winners from the Pocono Arts Council's five-county service area include James Chesnick, Marlana Holsten, and Lucille Norella.

ArtPop 2019 winners:

Annual Meeting & PPA Grant Awards

The Pocono Arts Council was pleased to present the 2018-19 PPA Project Stream grants to this year's grantees from our five-county service area on December 6, 2018 at the Pocono Cinema and Cultural Center in East Stroudsburg. Pocono Arts Council members in attendance voted to approve the budget for fiscal year 2018-19 and install two new board members for a three-year term. Welcome Alma Barrantes and Jim Evanisko. The Annual Report recapping the 2017-2018 fiscal year is available online at <http://poconoarts.org/pac/wp-content/uploads/2018-Annual-Report.pdf>

"The PPA Project Stream grant that Quiet Valley receives through the Pocono Arts Council has allowed us to focus on particular aspects of rural life in the 1800s. Folk art, heritage crafts and music of the time period have been shared with the public thanks to the grant funds used for supplies, speakers and advertising. The hands-on opportunities, workshops and speakers have been well received by our visitors who learned something new and had a good time."

Oil Painting (4 weeks)

Thursdays 6:30-8:30pm

January 3, 10, 17, 24, 31

This ongoing workshop focuses on the individual, helping them to develop their own personal style and technique working with the oil medium. Learn how to develop your painting by understanding drawing and composition, light and shadow, color, preparation of materials and the application of paint. Working at your own pace, you pick the subject while the instructor guides you through the painting process.

Instructor: John McAllister is a graduate of York Academy of Arts and works as a freelance artist and videographer.

Tuition based on 4 weeks: Member $75/Non-Member $85; Senior Member $65/Senior Non-Member $75

Intermediate Watercolor (4 weeks)

Sundays 1-4pm

January 6, 13, 20, 27

Come join us in this ongoing watercolor journey and discover the flexibility of this wonderful medium. We will cover composition, form shapes and definitely color!!! Students can work from photos that they have taken or utilize the still life that will be set up during each workshop. A very free approach will be explored where your creativity takes wing.

Instructor: Iraina Caramelli graduated from the Parsons School of Design in NYC. She also studied fine and graphic arts at Pratt Institute. She works in a variety of mediums including mixed media, acrylic, watercolor, pen and in and pastels.

Tuition based on 4 weeks: Member $100/Non-Member $110; Senior Member $90/Senior Non-Member $100

Drawing and More Workshop for Children (Ongoing)

Saturdays 1-3pm

January 5, 12, 19, 26

In this ongoing workshop students will explore easy drawing techniques to help them draw realistically and then move on to their own personal drawing interpretations of images. Explore color usage by learning about the color wheel and all of the variety of combinations that are available to them. Acrylics, watercolor, tempera paint and colored pencils are some of the supplies that will be used to express color choices. Join us to expand how you see the world.

Instructor: Suzanne Werfelman is a retired art teacher/artist who taught students in NYC, NJ and the Poconos for over 35 years. Suzanne graduated from Indiana University in Bloomington with a degree in Art Education.

Tuition: $10/workshop
